

Academic Dishonesty

The University of Hawai'i, Kaua'i Community College has a Student Code of Conduct which defines expected conduct for students.

The following are examples of the types of behavior that conflict with the community standards that UH values and expects of students. Engaging in or attempting to engage in any of these behaviors subjects a student to the disciplinary process and sanctions on each campus.

Acts of dishonesty, including but not limited to the following:

- Cheating, plagiarism, or other forms of academic dishonesty.
- Cheating is an act of academic dishonesty and includes, but is not limited to: (1) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; (2) use of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; (3) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a member of the UH faculty, staff, or student body; and (4) engaging in any behavior specifically prohibited by a faculty member in the course syllabus or class discussion.
Plagiarism is also an act of academic dishonesty and includes, but is not limited to, the use, by paraphrase or direct quotation, of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgment. It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials.
- Furnishing false information to any UH official, faculty member, or office.
- Forgery, alteration, or misuse of any UH document, record, or form of identification.
