

Student Conduct Code

The University of Hawai'i, Kaua'i Community College's Student Code of Conduct defines required conduct for students and specifies those acts subject to University sanctions.

Students should familiarize themselves with the Student Conduct Code, since upon enrollment at the University of Hawai'i, Kaua'i Community College, the student has placed themselves under the policies and regulations of the University and its duly constituted bodies. The disciplinary authority is exercised through the Senior Student Affairs Officer which is the campus administrator (i.e., dean or vice chancellor or designee) who is in charge of the division of student affairs, and generally charged by the campus Chancellor

Copies of the Student Conduct Code are available at the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs or online.
