AMT 152: Brake Systems

Credits: 4
Prereq: "C" or higher in AMT 100.
Semester Offered: Fall

Description: This course covers the principles in the operation of the modern automotive brake system. Further development in new technology such as computerized ABS (Anti-skid Brake Systems), electronic power brakes, and four-wheel disc brakes will be covered. Repair and service techniques of the complete brake system will be demonstrated.