

BUSN 171: Internet Technologies

Credits: 3

Lecture Hours: 3

Semester Offered: Fall

Description: This course introduces information technology as a tool for facilitating business functions in a global society. It emphasizes the most significant aspects of the internet including its infrastructure, protocols, applications, security, impact on society, and databases as related to search engines. Website creation will be introduced.