

BUSN 188: Business Calculations

Credits: 3

Lecture Hours: 3

Semester Offered: Spring

Description: This course introduces various quantitative computational procedures used in accounting and finance such as present and future value concepts, payroll, inventory, and international currency exchange rates. Utilization of the electronic 10-key pad as a tool for calculating will be stressed.