

QM 108 : Quantitative Methods for the Trades

Credits: 3

Class Hours: 3 lecture

Comments: This course is for students currently enrolled in a Trades Technology program.

Description: This course covers the quantitative methods, reasoning, and applications necessary to perform tasks and solve problems encountered by Trades students. Topics include computational operations; geometry and measurements; ratio, proportion, and percent; probability and statistics; and trigonometry.

Semester Offered: Fall, Spring