SCI 121L : Introduction to Science Lab

Credits: 1
Class Hours: 3 lab
Prerequisites: "C" or higher or concurrent enrollment in SCI 121.
Description: This laboratory science course is designed to accompany SCI 121.
Semester Offered: Fall, Spring
Designation:
Diversification: Lab (Science) — DY
Course Student Learning Outcomes (CSLOs):
1. Demonstrate an awareness of the biological scientist's approach to natural phenomenon.
2. Demonstrate a sense of relevance in data collection, data handling, interpretation, accurate reporting, and working with hypothesis and isolation of variables.
3. Identify and label the parts of a microscope and use the microscope as a tool.