

SP 151 : Personal and Public Speaking

Credits: 3

Class Hours: 3 lecture

Prerequisites:

Qualified for ENG 100S.

Description:

This course is an introduction to the fundamentals of speech communication in both traditional face-to-face and synchronous or asynchronous online academic and professional settings. Students engage in activities to acquire competence in interpersonal, small group, and public speaking.

Semester Offered: Fall, Spring

Designation: Diversification: Arts – DA

Course Student Learning Outcomes (CSLOs):

1. Demonstrate an understanding of communication theory and interpersonal communication skills.
2. Research, organize and discuss a problem in a small group and demonstrate effective communication skills.
3. Demonstrate effective research and use of supporting material in the delivery of an informative speech.
4. Demonstrate effective research and use of supporting material in the delivery of a persuasive speech.
5. Apply critical thinking and listening skills by providing constructive oral and/or written evaluations.