

SSCI 113 : Civic Leadership

Credits: 3

Class Hours: 3 lecture

Description:

The purpose of this course is to help students build the leadership skills, knowledge, and habits necessary for civic engagement. To adequately prepare for a lifetime of civic engagement, students must grapple with foundational leadership questions relating to power, morality, and ethics. This course incorporates experiential/service learning, a proven civic education practice, that extends lessons beyond the classroom and into the community.

Semester Offered: Spring

Designation: Diversification: Social Sciences — DS

Course Student Learning Outcomes (CSLOs):

1. Analyze leadership potential based on a thorough examination of leadership style, vision, and values.
2. Analyze core beliefs relating civic leadership to power, morality, ethics, and integrity.
3. Examine the benefits and consequences of civic leadership.
4. Apply social science approaches to civic engagement activities.