

Business Law (BLAW)

Business Law (BLAW) Classes

BLAW 200 : Legal Environment of Business

Credits: 3

Class Hours: 3 lecture

Description: This course introduces fundamental principles of law as applied to ordinary business relationships, sources of business law, the essential elements of a contract, the agency and employment relationships, negotiable instruments, bailments, personal property, and the sale of personal property. Emphasis is placed on the Uniform Commercial Code.

Semester Offered: Fall, Spring

Course Student Learning Outcomes (CSLOs):

1. Demonstrate an awareness of and a deeper appreciation for the ethical and social consequences of business decisions.
2. Describe the evolution and essential concepts and procedures of the American system of jurisprudence.
3. Explain the broad principles of law relating to contracts, torts, sales, consumer protection, property (real, personal, and bailments), agency, employment relationships, business organizations, and governmental regulation.
4. Describe the nine articles of the Uniform Commercial Code with particular attention to the subject of negotiable instruments.
5. Apply basic legal knowledge to make judgments and decisions within the context of the legal environment of business.